Art Horizons is pleased to be offering after-school art instruction at St. Elizabeth's to children in grades 1-4. Classes will meet on six Wednesdays, beginning February 28, 2018, from 3:20 p.m.(at "all call" dismissal)-4:45 pm. This class is open to beginning artists, as well as more advanced artists, as everyone works at their own pace. The cost of the session is $120 and all materials are included. Please register your child early to reserve a space as class size is limited.

About the Teacher ...Stephanie Rico, the founder of Art Horizons, is an art teacher who has been teaching art for more than 25 years to children and adults. Her work can be seen in public places such as The National Museum for Women in the Arts, The National Zoo, Children's Hospital, Strathmore Hall Arts Center, Montgomery County Office Buildings, and in many private art collections throughout the United States. Stephanie truly believes that all children are talented and that each child holds the gift of creativity and that everyone, young and old, should take the time to discover his or her own talents. Children leave Art Horizons proud of their work and with a sense of accomplishment.*

To register your child in Art Horizons, please fill in the information below and send it into school with a check payable to St. Elizabeth School no later than Wednesday, February 21.
